JOB POSTING

GLADUE CASEWORKER – BARRIE

Aboriginal Legal Services (ALS) is hiring a Gladue Caseworker for our Barrie office. This is a permanent position.

The Gladue Caseworker will assist clients who have been sentenced by the courts in meeting the conditions of their sentence. The Worker will also assist clients who are on bail and will also be expected to write short Gladue Reports.

The successful candidate should have the ability to work with a wide range of individuals. He/she should be able to work well under pressure and to handle a regular caseload of clients. The Caseworker will be able to work independently and to manage a number of files at once. Knowledge of the legal system and programs and services available to Aboriginal people in the Barrie region would be a great asset.

If you are applying for more than one area please make that clear in your cover letter.

Please forward all applications by Tuesday, April 25, 2017 to:
